

Recommended Resources: Chapter 1

Suggestions for further reading to extend and deepen knowledge, and to add context.

You are urged to preview recommended sources and judge their suitability for your own classroom use.

Websites

IB Psychology InThinking subject sites

A paid subscription is required to view most of the materials on this site, which is constantly revised and updated.

The research methods section contains quality, lively and up-to-date material specifically for IB requirements. This site's 'Introducing psychology' under the 'New curriculum textbook: Research in psychology' tab should reinforce and supplement the material in the coursebook. The sections dealing with theories, empirical studies and thinking about testability are strongly recommended.

Psychlotron

The presentations, activities and worksheets in the Debates sections provide materials that support Section 1.4 Ongoing general debates in psychology in the coursebook.

TED and TEDEd

These include a number of resources that can serve as introductory material. A recommended example is Why incompetent people think they're amazing by David Dunning. The 'Dig Deeper' section includes a range of follow-up resources.

YouTube

Video introductions to psychology include the strongly driven Why Study Psychology and Intro to psychology at Crash Course Psychology.