

TOK essays examiner's comments

Example C

This is an example of a satisfactory TOK essay. It was awarded a mark of 6/10. The essay starts well with a clear introduction where the candidate engages with what "disinterestedness" means and puts forward their own position of disagreement with the title. However, as the essay progresses, particularly in the discussion of the human sciences, it lacks analysis.